

The Phoenix Society Holds Special Meeting

November 3, 2013

At a special meeting of the Phoenix Multi-Faith Society For Harmony held at ScotiaPlace Conference Centre on Sunday, November 3, 2013, board members of the Edmonton Council of Muslim Communities, Jewish Federation of Edmonton, and the Edmonton and District Council of Churches met to discuss issues of common interest.

Newly elected Edmonton City Councillor Scott McKeen brought greetings from the City of Edmonton. Edmonton Police Service Detective Stephen Camp provided an informative update of the activities of the Alberta Hate Crime Committee of which he is Co-Chair. Stephen also co-founded the Edmonton Police service Hate Crime Unit.
